

April 14, 2008

Contact: Lisa Burns Pat Charland
585 243-222 585-394-3915

MEDIA ALERT
A Private Reception
April 26, 2008
2 pm to 4 pm
All Things Art
65 S. Main St.
Canandaigua

Geneseo, NY -The partners of Slice, Dice and Spice NY are pleased to announce the winning student artwork in the Aprons on Parade community art project. High school students were asked to submit artwork representing healthy lifestyles, culinary arts or local agriculture. Over 50 designs were submitted by students from five school districts in Ontario, Livingston and Wayne counties. We are pleased to announce the following winners:

Joseph Miyazato, Naples Central School
Onagh MacKenzie, Naples Central School
Ashley Ludwig, Livonia Central H.S.
Jenna Cavigliano, Livonia Central H.S.
Seneca Sherman, Livonia Central H.S.
Lauren Brown, Canandaigua Academy
Alexae Ackerman, Canandaigua Academy
Melissa Yeaple, Canandaigua Academy
Tyler Geraci, Mt. Morris School

The participating art teachers, students and their parents are invited to attend a private reception. All submitted artwork will be on display and, in addition to the recognition of all the participants, the nine winning students will be presented with their own art on aprons and the winner of the $250 Grand Prize will be announced. Winning designs will be printed on the aprons worn by the competing teams at the Slice, Dice & Spice Pro-

Am competition May 12th-15th at the New York Wine and Culinary Center. For more information go to www.slicediceandspiceny.com or call Livingston County Tourism at 585 243-2222 or Finger Lakes Visitors Connection at 585-394-3915.

###

NOTE: Slice, Dice and Spice is an Iron Chef-like competition to be held during National Tourism Week May 12 – 15, 2008 at the New York Wine and Culinary Center in Canandaigua. Program partners are Finger Lakes Visitors Connection, Wayne County Tourism, Livingston County Tourism, the Canandaigua Wine Trail and New York Wine Culinary Center. Funding for this program was made possible by I Love NY and the Explore NY matching grants.